WON MILITARY CROSS

Calgary Bandman Distinguishes Himself at Vimy Ridge.

Private James Morgan, who before enlisting, was a Bandsman of the Calgary Citadel Band, has now awarded the Military Cross for bravery at Vimy Ridge, the Canadian troops, overrunning with the 50th Battalion, and has seen much fighting, having taken part in the great Somme Drive.

Private Morgan lies wounded in the hospital, but his soldier-comrades sent the purple and white ribbons but that goes with the decoration. Mrs. Morgan, of Calgary, 1, Connaught Place, whose young letter was sent by the Officer Commanding to our comrade, who has so nobly distinguished himself:

"No. 435, Private J. Morgan, 50th Canadian Infantry Battalion—On behalf of the brigade, I desire to congratulate you on your most heartily won honourable cross. It has been awarded you in recognition of your gallant conduct as a Canadian soldier. It afforded me much pleasure to forward the recommendation submitted by the officer commanding your battalion. I thank you for the good service you have rendered to the Canadian Army. You will be paid to continue the good record which you have already set for yourself—Edw. Kijham, Brigadier-General, commanding 10th Canadian Infantry."

MILITARY OFFICER

Sends Self-Denial Donation from France.

Writing from France to Brother Harry Dawson of the Lethbridge Corps, Lieutenant-Colonel Stewart, M.P., says:—

"Dear Harry—Many thanks for your letter and for your prayers and good wishes. Very glad indeed to hear that the members of The Salvation Army have done so well. I knew they would whenever required, for the men we send are the ones who pull through the fiercest and quicker if they are hit, so it is good for them to belong to The Salvation Army."

"I have asked Mrs. Stewart to send you a Self-Denial donation from the both of us, and know it cannot be placed in better hands than for the salvation of men. The boys from Lethbridge who are with myself, are all well at present. Best wishes for your Army and its work and for you and yours."

SERVING THE SERVICE MEN HOW THE SALVATION ARMY IS CATERING TO THE NEEDS OF OUR BOYS IN KHAKI

WHOMO serves us commands our services?" might very well be a byword maxim, but the Salvationist goes farther than this, for he aims to be Servant of All, whether that means the lad with the colours or the boy who has seen much fighting, having taken part in the great Somme Drive.

Private Morgan lies wounded in the hospital, but his soldier-comrades sent the purple and white ribbons the lads with the colours is the admiration and marvel of every boy who comes within its influence. Here is no cast-iron system, he says, but a kindredness of the heart which goes straight to the heart.

Does the boy in camp need the motherly touch on a pair of socks which have gone haltingly-holey, he knows that "Ma" as he often calls the Hut Officer's wife, will negotiate the task in next to no time. He knows, too, that he is an exceedingly busy woman, but he has soon time to send the garment to her.

HOME LEAGUE NOTES

The various Home Leagues are very busy now making comforts for the boys at the front. The following articles have been received: Lippincott—dozen pair socks, 4 suits of pyjamas.

Wychwood—18 pairs socks.

Dovercourt—4 suits pyjamas, 2 pairs socks.

A lively interest prevails among the Home League workers at Ottawa, 1, and we send our thanks for all the work done and possible in the two hours we have at our disposal. We have made, up to date, for the Red Cross Society, 6 pairs pyjamas, 60 pillow slips crocheted, 6 waist cords for pyjamas, and knit stockings, 100 pairs socks, and knitting cotton. Our members are taking a great interest in the weekly meetings, and though Secretary Mrs. Coffie has been laid aside for some weeks, the work has gone on under the leadership of Treasurer Mrs. Turner.

Guelph—The League here only number twenty-two (writes Mrs. Major Frazer), but they are active and diligent workers. The total income during the one year and eight months I have been connected with the League amounts to $100. This money has been spent in helping our Corps in its most pressing needs and in paying for the material from which we make garments. About three months ago we formed a girls' class to help the Red Cross Work. The wool was given to us and we gave our time and labour. Eighty-eight pairs of socks have been sent to the boys at the front.

Lisgar Street (Toronto)—We enjoyed the company of Mr. Commissioner Mapp last Thursday afternoon. He told us some of the customs of our Japanese comrades, and we were sorry when the time was up. Mrs. Brigadier Adby was also with us, and partook of a friendly cup of tea. —M. A.

BAND NOTES

A bright and interesting program was given by the Calgary L. Band on the evening of June 4th. Commandant Allen was Chairman. Dr. Beauchamp, Prior's Locch in France, who before enlisted, was a member of the Band, were well told, and proved to most of the large congregation present that our Soldiers at the front are keeping the Yellow, Red, and Blue well up. It being "Band Week-end," our meetings on Sunday night service were glad to report one conversion in the night meeting. Adjutant and Mrs. Merritt are taking well hold of the work.

Brigadier and Mrs. Morehen visited Yorkville, June 2nd-3rd, accompanied by Mr. Oldfield, L. Band. From the open-air and musical festival on Saturday to the close of the Sunday night service, every moment was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The talks given by the Brigadier in the meetings and Mrs. Morehen at night were of great interest to all. The members of the O. F. O. joined their beautiful hall! The Salvation Army for the week-end, where the meetings were held.

The services at the Toronto Temple on Sunday, June 17th, were

VI.—LEADERSHIP IN SALVATION WARFARE

WHEN a number of persons seek the accomplishment of a common object, there will always be different plans of action—one thinking one course is the best, and another thinking another. Therefore, if they are to act together, there must be a leader, who shall say what is to be done, and how it should be done; in other words, one must command, and the rest must obey.

Any attempt at acting together on the part of a number of persons combined, without a leader, must ignorantly fail. No matter how earnest and honest they may be in their efforts to accomplish and complete the performance of any specified task, unless they have a leader whose directions they follow, and whose decisions they obey, there will be confusion and disappointment, and the work will not be done.

His leadership may be in no way interfering with the freedom of God. It has ever been God's plan to lead through individuals. The birds of the air that fly in flocks, and the animals that roam through the forest in herds and companies, have all learned, and are learning, to obey him without any rebuke or complaint. His plan is not to be arguing as to whether such instructions are the wisest or the best, but simply to obey them, providing, of course, that they are not opposed to true and right principles.

The acceptance of this principle of obedience and a cheerful compliance with it are essential to true peace of mind. If a Soldier is always discussing as to whether he ought to do this or do the other, to go here or there, there will always be a controversy, and therefore, in misery perhaps he might have done otherwise; but this has been His method.

Some people think that every man ought to act as he believes himself led by the Holy Ghost, obeying his own sense of what seems right and best.

We do not dispute that God could lead men to act in companies after this fashion, but we simply state the fact that He never has done so; and that it is just as easy, and seems to us far more rational, the practice of this obedience lies at the very foundation of all fighting power in the Army.

Despatches From The Firing Line

MAN AND WIFE

Seek Salvation at Lisgar Street—Boy Learners and Sisters Reinforce Band.

Brigadier and Mrs. Adby conducted the week-end meetings at Lisgar Street. On Sunday morning the Brigadier spoke on "Grace"; the whole meeting being permeated with that subject. The young people, the women, and the choruses. Prior to the afternoon meeting the Brigadier addressed the Young People. A very happy praise meeting was conducted in the afternoon, the Band and Songsters taking a prominent part.

In the evening Mrs. Adby accompanied the close of the service a man and wife volunteered for Salvation. These converts were Salvationists long ago, and have been attending the meetings regularly ever since their return to the fold.

Despite the fact our Band is keeping wonderfully. We have six or seven boys learning instruments now, and they will soon be ready to play. In addition to these, we have three sisters in the Band, two of whom play tenor horns and one a banjo.

UNITED MUSICAL

Presided Over by Adjutant Pugnire at Vancouver L.

Adjutant Pugnire, of the Winnipeg Territorial Headquarters Staff, conducted the meetings at Vancouver L. on Saturday and Sunday. The meetings were well attended and the Adjutant's addresses were listened to with evident appreciation. There was a good muster of the Band at all the open-air, which were attended by large crowds. At night meetings were held.

On Monday following a united Musical Meeting was held in the No. 1. Citadel in honour of the Adjutant's visit. All the city Corps took part in the programme. Brigadier McLean was to have presided, but was overtaken by a severe attack of appendicitis, who expressed his desire to be highly honoured, and also took occasion to say how much he had enjoyed his visit, and especially the playing of the Band and the singing of the Songster Brigade.

Our highest collectors were Cadet McElhenney ($46.10) and Sister Connie ($40). Find our Champion not been sick for a few days, without a doubt the Divisional prize would have come to Charlottetown this year. All our people worked willingly and hard, and are all deserving of great praise.

STAFF-CAPTAIN PEACOCK

Visits Nelson and Rossland and Starts Up Interest in the Young People's Work.

On Friday, June 1st, Staff-Captain Peacock visited Nelson. He was met at the boat by the Life-Saving Scouts and Life-Saving Guards. The Staff-Captain went to Rossland, for the first time, but did not stay there on the following Tuesday. He had a busy afternoon, for he met the Corps Cadets and Young People's Workers in Council at 2.30 and conducted a special meeting for the boys and girls at 4.15, when about 100 school children attended.

At the end of the day he gave an interesting talk. The Life-Saving Scouts and Guards were in attendance, and during the service the Guards sang, Ensign Carpenters, our Corps' Officer, and Ensign Kerr, who had come up with the Staff-Captain, both had new uniforms.

At Rossland Staff-Captain Peacock conducted the week-end meetings, June 2nd-4th. On Sunday morning he gave a talk to the Juniors, and we rejoiced at the close in seeing three Young People give their hearts to God.

On Monday night the Juniors attended the meeting by giving an action service, entitled "Mother's Garden," which was followed by a talk from the Staff-Captain, and an appeal for more Junior Workers, which resulted in one sister offering her services as a Company Guard.

ALL WORKED WELL

And the People Gave. Willingly

Charlottetown Corps can report victory for the Self-Denial Effort, realizing $155 over last year's total. Every Soldier worked splendidly, and the people gave willingly. The Missions were supplied by Mr. Barr (our Divisional Commander) helped us out with the Junior total.

Many of the children collected quite a bit, who probably would not have collected otherwise.

Our highest collectors were Cadet McElhenney ($46.10) and Sister Connie ($40). Find our Champion not been sick for a few days, without a doubt the Divisional prize would have come to Charlottetown this year. All our people worked willingly and hard, and are all deserving of great praise.

STRATHROY

On Sunday, June 10th, the meetings were led by Ensign and Mrs. Smith. In the Holiness meeting we had one soul out for the blessing, and at night we had our hearts made glad by seeing four souls at the Cross seeking Salvation. At last we had a soul which prayed. Our Self-Denial Target has been smashed, and altogether Strathroy is experiencing blessed times—M. P.

UNITED EFFORT

Resulted in Victory at St. John III.

One Self-Denial Target was reached by the united efforts of the Soldiers. A number of our champions of last year were still here, and the number of having gone away. The number of having collected the largest amount of the Corps' total funds fell to Life-Saving Girl Myrtle Steeves ($28), Sister Mrs. Watson ($15), and Sister Mrs. McDonald ($7.50). The Life-Saving Guards of No. 111, Corps collected $80; the Scouts $26, and the Young People's Corps reached the grand sum of $28—J. Barclay, Captain.

SOMERSIDE, P.E.I.

Several of our Soldiers have been ill and unable to take part in the Self-Denial Effort. In spite of these difficulties we came off victorious. The Captain secured a nose and ring, and drove for two hours with a collection box. He found many others to help, and the fair boys are being cared for by The Army in France.

Our Treasurer, Mrs. Best, recently went through an operation, and is now doing fine. Adjutant Bestie has been laid aside, but is

In your next report tell "The War Cry" as briefly as you can what gave the most striking testimony at Sunday's meetings, and what were the outstanding features of it.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SECRET

Visits Several Corps in the London Division—Many Juniors and Senior Salvation.

We were delighted to welcome Brigadier Bettison to the Division, for another campaign in the interests of the Young People (writes Staff Captain White). On Tuesday evening we visited Stratford, where a good number of children attended the afternoon meeting, and greatly enjoyed the Brigadier's talk. The meeting was held at night, and at the close, many comrades cast forward to offer their services and make suggestions for the improvement of the Junior Work. Ensign and Mrs. White had all in their power to make the meeting a success.

Sarnia—A fine crowd of children gathered here in the afternoon, largely owing to the energetic efforts of Captain and Mrs. Ashby. The address given by the Brigadier made a deep impression, and twenty-two came out to seek Jesus. At seven o'clock in the evening we had a regular talk to the Life-Saving Scouts in the Senior meeting, which was well attended. The topic was "The Value of the Child."

Petrolia—The meeting for the children at this place resulted in eight seeking Salvation. A Young People's Local Officers' meeting was held at night, and the Adjutant and Mrs. Sharp had arrangements well in hand. Staff Captain and Mrs. Thompson is the most hopeful spirit regarding her department of work.

Chatham—The Brigadier spent three days here. Naturally the Young People's Work was the first to be attended, and while the services on Friday and Saturday were conducted in a most hearty and helpful manner among the Seniors, they also served to interest even the Junior side of things.

All day Sunday the Brigadier was with the Young People. There was an attendance of seventy-four. The Day of Decision meeting was a time of great heart-searching. In the afternoon the Brigadier attended the Company meeting and met the Young People's Locals at the close. Brother and Sister Heath had their talk, and dedicated the meeting to the after-service.

At night we had a most blessed time, fourteen persons sealing their souls being saved at night.

FAITH HEALING

By The Army's Founder

[The reprinting of this treatise will enable readers to understand what the Salvation Army teaches on this important subject, and will also, we hope, help to clear the minds of any who may be mystified by some of the elusive Utterances that are set forth nowadays.]

And many other equally blighting and deadly sins.

These have been diseases that no man ever could rid himself of—Magistrates, Prisoners, Doctors, Human Sympathy, and Love, the strongest resolutions, and, indeed, every other form of earthly remedy known to man, all combined, have not succeeded in effecting the desired cure.

(c) Deliverance out of temporal distress, such as Poverty, Persecution and other like afflictions. I question very much whether there have ever referred is a powerful means of all old who have been favoured with marvellous manifestations of God's power in the dark places of the world.

Journeying again by motor boat to Gooseberry Island, the meeting did not begin until 9 p.m., but it was a good crowd which listened intently. The week-end was a success. Basswood was approached by boat. A lantern service on Saturday night was well attended. On Sunday great crowds flocked to the meeting-place, one soul coming forward at night, after a royal battle.

Waddington, Alexander Bay, and Port Burwell were visited. The Corps favoured on this tour by a visit from the Divisional Commander and the Young People's Secretary.

By the time this is in the hands of the readers, the Canadian tour of the Army is full of remarkable answers to what is called the Prayer of Faith, and I am full of confidence that we shall see far more remarkable ones yet in this direction. The columns of our different "War Cries" have recorded, from time to time, hundreds, nay, thousands of instances, showing that God has been graciously pleased, in answer to the Prayer of Faith.

Is not the time now at hand when we can be assured that there can be a Call of The Salvation Army, at home or abroad, in which some such signs and wonders have not been wrought.

(d) And then, have not marvellous events taken place during the month of June? Have we not seen men and women and little children raised up from the borders of the grave, and restored to health and vigour, in answer to the Prayer of Faith?

Have we not seen cures effected in cases where all medical skill had failed? Is not God pleased to them, and have they not been raised up, we have seen our people again and again gloriously delivered by the Hand of God, in answer to the Prayer of Faith?

(e) And then, when will there be satisfaction around?

Mr. Colonel Otway, during the absence of the Colonels on the tour above referred to, visited Charlottetown, Musgrave Town, and Clarenceville, spending four useful and profitable days at Musgrave Town, conducting meetings, and visiting the homes of the wounded and returned soldiers.

Mrs. Colonel Otway, during the absence of the Colonels on the tour above referred to, visited Charlottetown, Musgrave Town, and Clarenceville, spending four useful and profitable days at Musgrave Town, conducting meetings, and visiting the homes of the wounded and returned soldiers.

Bay Roberts—The Chancellor and his wife (Staff-Captain and Mrs. Turner) have also been on the war-path, spending most interesting and profitable week-end at this Corps. The meetings were well-attended, and Sunday was a day of spiritual feasting and blessing—four souls being saved at night.

The Curse of Drunkenness, which has reduced men lower than we to-day, and have not some of them since passed away, glorifying the Prayer Answerer? God on tramp-hunting dying beds?

How Could We Believe?

If all this had not been our own experience, if we did not believe in the power of Prayer, and see the proof of it, how could we say that we are in the line of the Apostles? How could we believe that we were true followers of Jesus if we had not been converted by the crucifixion of Jesus Christ?

"Yes, I was glad to shake hands with Colonel Addie, Adjutant Dan McMillan, and see Adjutant Peter Feaver in charge of the Garrison Officer. The latter is in charge of the Army for young women. One day I dropped into the meeting at Chaplin Hill, and was greatly surprised to find Lieutenant Peter in charge, an Officer who came to me and said, 'I'm sorry to tell you that you're not fit for the Army.' I asked him what he meant, and he said, 'I'm sorry to tell you that you're not fit for the Army.'

As we passed through the composing room the old linotype was at grinding out its merry little lay as we thought that very soon it would be out of its wretched misery, and then going off in fits to the scrap heap.

Christ? How could we claim that we have received the Holy Spirit if we do not believe in the power of those of those who can affirm that we are of an unbelieving world and doubtless Church, that our God is the Hearer and Answerer of Prayer? And, here let me remark, in passing, that strength lies in these instances, and that the strength should greatly increase and multiply amongst us. The first main object, for which The Army exists is the bringing of lost souls to God, training them in His ways, and leading them onward in the great conflict with earth as hell, until they are called to join the Host of the Redeemed. That, I say, is the object for which The Army exists in this world, although with its vain pleasure-seeking, it suits, cares for none of these things and the performances of such miseries as those to which have been referred is a powerful means of drawing the attention of old who have been favoured with marvellous manifestations of God's power in the dark places of the world.

Men and women who have been favoured with these remarkable manifestations of Divine Power a sometimes spoken of us as "Dr. Feaver's Army." In matter of fact, we have not been privileged to receive them. In matter of fact, we have not been favoured with the Army of Jehovah and the realities of religion.

QUESTIONED BY QUERIST

"The new machine will save the oil and money, then?"

"Yes, and not only that, we will be able to print a much better 'War Cry' and will cause satisfaction around."

Mr. Colonel Otway, during the absence of the Colonels on the tour above referred to, visited Charlottetown, Musgrave Town, and Clarenceville, spending four useful and profitable days at Musgrave Town, conducting meetings, and visiting the homes of the wounded and returned soldiers.

There is a rumour, Brigadier that you had another object in view in visiting Chicago?

"Well, perhaps I had, but there nothing definite about it. You know what you're hinting at. What do you think of that a new 'War Cry' coming, too, but we mustn't say, and be content with one that's time."

COMMISSIONER SOWTON ADDRESSES SCANDINAVIAN CONGREGATION

HEART-TO-HEART TALKS

By Mrs. Blanche Johnston

We are commencing a weekly Bible Study taking as our subject the daily lessons from the "Salvation Soldier's Guide." We shall have space for only the briefest reference to the lesson for each day, but we shall hope to make our comments suggestive. The looking up of references, whenever possible, will be very helpful.

Sunday, July 1st: The Children's Service (Mark 10:16-21). As we shall try to give the chief or central thought each day, we draw attention to verse 13. How differently the Master received the little ones to the reception His followers tendered childhood since the days of the flesh Jesus. The Spirit of the Master has gradually permeated human society. The Premier of Canada wrote recently, regarding the religious training of children: "The Government acknowledges the value of the splendid work being done by the various branches of our Dominion. We are well aware that the to-morrow of Canada is being shaped by the teaching of today."

Monday, July 2nd: Wrong Rights Chosen? (Mark 10:17-21, Matthew 19:22-30). Verses 5 shows the Master's heart filled with sorrow because the young man of upright life and unblemished record was not satisfied with himself. It was not that he was rich, but that he put the riches in the premier place in his life.

Tuesday, July 3rd: Vineyard Laborers (Matt. 20:1-16). The inner meaning of this parable has always rather puzzled me. But it would seem as if the Lord would teach that the children of men must trust in His goodness, that the King will deal equitably with them.

Wednesday, July 4th: Real Greatness. The disciples were seeking earthly honour and position. The Master's lesson was that services to others gives the highest claim to leadership. We have an illustration in the career of The Army's Founder. He did not deserve the highest of the people, but before his honour-crowned life closed he was the leader, in many lines of missionary, sociological, and Christian service. The methods he first introduced are now followed by all branches of social service work.

Thursday, July 5th: Zacheus. Many lessons are obvious. When there is desire to see Jesus, determined effort to serve, and willingness to obey Him, He will willingly see and receive the seeking soul. Not only is the individual who seeks Christ blessed in his own life, but his action radiates blessing.

Friday, July 6th: The Pounds (Luke 19:11-27). The spiritual interpretation is the sinfulness of wasting the talents with which one may have been endowed, and perhaps the loss of the opportunity of the time. How often people refuse to perform the services which seem to be small things; forgetting that there are "no littles in the Kingdom of God."

Saturday, July 7th: Mary's Gift (John 1:15, 56; 12:1-11). The word "messiah" means "the anointed," which may well account for its use as the name of the Messiah. We need to learn how to worship and adore His Divine Christ. By worship we shall get acquainted with Him, this is the secret of strength. It is significant that this Mary was trusted by her Lord with the first message of the Resurrection.

WELLAND CORPS NEW HOME OPENED BY CHIEF SECRETARY

Warm Demonstration of Interest

Welland becomes a city on July 1st. A Salvation Army Corps will open its doors on the week-end of that day. We do not know of which the generous-hearted citizens of this prosperous community are the more proud; certain it is that the interest displayed in The Army's taking possession of its new home, and the liberality which has made its presentation possible, are both very noteworthy.

Colonel McMillan opened the building on Saturday evening, and led the week-end campaign, supported by Lieut.-Colonel Chandler and Brigadiers Miller and Sandall.

At the lecture given by the Colonel on Sunday afternoon, Mayor Vaughan, who presided, made it very evident that his presence here was the result of a very long day's work. He was, he said, proud to see that the gathering included representatives of nearly every religious congregation in the place. A warm acknowledgement of the value of The Army to the city was followed by His Worship stating he believed every citizen was proud of the new building.

The Colonel's lecture was an interesting and interesting description of The Army's Work in various lands as he himself had seen it.

Mr. Duff, of the Welland "Telegraph," when proposing a vote of thanks, said it was thirty-three years ago that The Army had started work in Welland. When a young man he had been sent to report a meeting of the band of the Y.M.C.A. that number of trophies had testified, and the impression made upon him had never been effaced. "Every man, woman, and child in Welland," he declared, "wishes you God-speed!"

Magistrate Goodwin was equally warm. He had watched the brave fight The Army had made in Welland and was delighted to find now, so far as having a Hall of their own, the soldiers had reached the Promised Land. "This community," he went on to say, "owes a great debt to The Salvation Army. Many a one would-to-day be a public charge; but for it. It does work which no other organization can do, or is equipped to do. Mr. Goodwin, in his special reference to the war work of The Army, said he read about it every Sunday in "The War Cry."

The other of the week-end meetings were full of blessing. The Colonel was happy in his direction they took in the inmates. One of the inmates, who acts as head gardener, presented a bouquet of flowers to each of the sisters present.

Afterwards, in conversation with Adjutant Wright, Mr. Duff, who was delighted to learn that not only do the men appreciate The Army meetings while they last, but their appreciation manifests itself in their conduct for weeks after.

FURTHER HUT DAY RESULTS

We are pleased to announce that sums contributed to those already mentioned increase the totals for the Hut Day collection. The targets of the London and Hamilton Divisions were each $750. London (Brigadier Rawling) raised $829.10, and Hamilton (Lieut.-Colonel Chandler), the amount of its objective, £400 towards the cost.

LIEUT.-COL. OTWAY

President of Self-Denial Ingathering at St. John's L. & S. Notable Victories

Lieut.-Colonel Otway conducted the Self-Denial Ingathering at the Corps on Wednesday last. It proved a notable gathering. No. II, headed, headed by Adjutant the Brace, rallied up well, and with the No. II, Band, made a good contribution.

On Sunday night the Commissioner and Mrs. Sowton conducted the meeting in The Army Hall at Elmvwood. Lieut.-Colonel and Mrs. Turner, who are Soldiers of the Corps, assisted. The Hall was well filled and the meeting was a blessing and an inspiration to all.

Training Principal

ENCOURAGING SIX WEEKS' TOUR—YOUNG PEOPLE TAKING STAND

Brigadier Phillips, the Training School Principal for Canada West, has just completed a very interesting tour through the Provinces, having visited and conducted meetings at practically every Corps in the three Divisions.

The tour extended over a period of six weeks, sixty-four inside and fifty-open-air meetings being held by the Brigadier, a number of them with the inmates of jails and penitentiaries.

Speaking of his tour, the Brigadier stated that he had been much impressed by the large number of Young People who were taking a definite stand for God in The Army throughout the West. These Young People were indeed doing their best to fill the ranks made by those who are now serving their King and country. Twenty came forward for Salvation and Consecration.

VISITING THE PRISONERS

Brigadier McLean Presides at Musical Service in Penitentiary.

On Saturday, June 2d, Adjutant H. Habirk (the Men's Social Officer for British Columbia) arranged with Mr. Brown (the Warden of Delta) to hand over the musical troupe of The Army Band Redcarba, the Bands from Vancouver Nos. I and II, rendered an excellent programme.

Warden Brown thanked those Warden Brown also spoke, and, on behalf of the inmates, expressed what had come out, and said how much he was personally indebted to The Army Officers for the interest they took in the inmates. One of the inmates, who acts as head gardener, presented a bouquet of flowers to each of the sisters present.

Afterwards, in conversation with Adjutant Wright, Mr. Duff, who was delighted to learn that not only do the men appreciate The Army meetings while they last, but their appreciation manifests itself in their conduct for weeks after.

NEW SALVATION SONG BY CANADIAN COMPOSER

A place of honour is given in the May "Musical Salvations" to a composition by a Canadian Officer, Captain S. E. Cox (Wingfield) of the Royal Headquarters, entitled "The Song in the Wilderness." Major Hawkes of The Army's International Music Department writes:

"The composer of this song is by this time quite well known to many of our readers. Although it is less than two years ago since his first publication to this magazine, his contribution, he has added in that brief period, producing quite a number of pieces that have become very popular. Perhaps the best known are, 'You can tell me the sweet story,' 'I love His beauty every day,' and 'I was walking in the wilderness.' We may easily reason to believe that this will speedily take its place beside the above listed, and become equally popular and useful."

A MALTESE ROMANCE

Stirring Story of Military Life and a Soul's Salvation

CHAPTER XXIX.

A VISITOR AND A BOOK

EXT morning George was pained by being compelled to confess he sent him to the Camp Commandant. He was ordered to be tried by court-martial for desertion. Then followed weary wait of several days in it which I know you will like to read."

"It is a religious thing, Tommy?" asked George.

"Yes," was the reply, "it is The Army's monthly missionary magazine."

Thought it Dry

"Hew!" said George, "what a thing to bring a fellow. I suppose it's full of dry old reports of Mr. So-and-so's work among the niggers with your money and all about expenses and so on. Tommy, you're a sharp one, you. You know I haven't anything else to read, except I shall have to swallow your old missionary stuff or have nothing."

"I don't think you'll find it dry, Stanton," said Tommy. "I think there is a great deal of good reading in it. I have got many a blessing through its pages."

"A blessing! Hal-hai! lau!" said George. "Why, Tommy, you are a crack hand at talking like a missionary yourself. Well, I'll look through the book any way, and see if I can get a blessing that will counteract the curses I've been listening to lately."

"Stanion, how is it with your soul?" said the other with a sudden earnestness.

George was impressed, but was in no mood to listen to serious talk.

"My soul, all right, I expect, Tommy," he replied gaily; "don't you worry about me, son. I'm no worse than most fellas, so I expect I'll score through the judgment all right and wriggle into Heaven."

"Not unless you are washed in the Blood of Christ," said Tommy as a parting shot.

George's careless attitude towards the things is typical of that of so many young men. They are willing to confess themselves sinners in a general sort of way, but have no definite conviction of sin. Thus they imagine that because they are just as good as So-and-so, they will not be judged harshly. They do not know or do not dare to realize how it will be all right with them in the next world. They hug the delusion that a few words, hastily uttered on a dying bed, will effect a magical change and assure them a passport to eternal glory, though they have all their lives disregarded God's laws.

A Startling Heading

Such was George's belief, anyhow. That afternoon his complacency received a bit of a shock. Idly turning over the leaves of the volume his attention was attracted by the following startling heading--to an article:

auton, how is it with your soul?"

nd room until the members of the court had been selected and duly emblled.

visitor came to see us during this period of waiting trial and that was Gunner Chapman, whom, our readers remember, as the Salvation's singer at St. Paul's Bay.

I'm sorry you've got yourself into trouble," said Chapman, "but I'm here practically."

"There are any little thing I can do to help you at all?"

Asked for a Book

No, I don't think so, Tommy," said George. "I took a big chance lost; that's all, and now I've got my medicine like a man. So I expect you'll be all right for me a book or two to while away time. It's terrible lonesome and agonizing stuck in this place all night."

Tommy gladly promised to do little for George, and away went the latter wondering what native lay behind Tommy's interest in him.

Now he thinks I'll be a likely for General Booth's Army, that I've made some failure in getting into George."

That, the Salvation Army's composed of former wrecks, after all. I haven't got so low that I need rescuing by any folks. Well, they won't try to rescue me, I think. I may, though, to the end of coming to try and cheer me up. He's only one in the whole camp who demonstrated any practical fitness to me as yet."

which it will be seen that was still in dense darkness under the true spiritual conditions of the soul and self-confidence. He had yet

CORPS CADETS

Part in Special Meetings

Winning II. on Sunday, June 24, the Corps Cadets, under the command of their Guardian, Mrs.

Staff-Captain Peacock, took the meetings all day. The afternoon session was very interesting and the cadets and officers showed the teaching that the Corps Cadets receive from week to week. It certainly reflected great credit on all concerned. Mrs. Staff-Captain Peacock took the lessons, morning and evening, and was also assisted by Captain Corp. Corlett, in the inside and outdoor meetings.

The Corp Cadet Class is on the up-grade, the attendance having rights in order that he may return."

"The Lord's Prayer." Our Father which art in Heaven. Hallowe'ns. Note the 'Heaven'--not on earth. You should always pray as if God were near, long way off. There should be no undue familiarity, as saith the next petition: "Hallowed be Thy name."

"My kingdom come," but not just yet. "Thy kingdom come," but not just yet. At least improbable that breweries, wine-shops, tobacco stores, and theatres would have the royal license. "My will be done on earth and Thine in Heaven." Note this day as my daily bread what we can be enough to meet the needs of ten or twelve thousand human people. "Give us this day our daily bread." Wine, brandy, beer, tobacco, chess, jewellery, fine clothes, and all other things requisite for our station in life. "Forgive us our trespasses even though we cannot quite forgive those who trespass against us, and when we walk deliberately into the jaws of temptation, deliver us from the evil consequences that are likely to follow. For Thine is (or, rather, shall be after death) the Kingdom, the power and the glory, ever and ever, Amen..."

Parody of the Gospel

"Such is the Gospel according to the world! Who can fail to see that it is a mere parrot-like caricature of the true Gospel of Christ? What a contrast! Salvation now, instead of a cross to carry, a war to wage, a sword to save, seen to face, a world to oppose, a crown to win, a Heaven below, and a Hell above. Between the two make your choice, but whichever you choose, consider what it may be, a reality!"

"Well, Tommy, was right after all," mused George, after finishing the article; "this book is decidedly interesting."

He went on to read stories describing the practical working out

George heard his sentence read out if their charity not only begins at home, but stops there as well..."

"Charity covers a multitude of sins." Charity is a cloak over the sinner. In fact, charity ignores the vices of the rich and the respectable, reserving its anathemas and penalties for the evils doing of the poor. To rebuke sin and to call it by hard names is the essence of rudeness and the mark of vulgarity."

The good seed had found a favourable soil. It was beginning to germinate.

A day or two later George heard his sentence read out on the barrack square: "Three months' imprisonment." He was sent to Corfeham Military Prison.

more than doubted. We look for still greater things from these simple people in the days to come. God bless them! Captain and Mrs. Jones, the Officers in charge, are much interested in this branch of the Young People's Work.

STAFF-CAPTAIN GOODWIN

Leads Stirring Meetings at Sackatoon—Methodist Friends Assist.

Staff-Captain Peacock paid Lethbridge a visit on June 11th, in the interest of the Young People's Work, and we had a very good time. The Staff-Captain had a short meeting with the children and Young People at 7 p.m., and at 8 o'clock led the meeting of the Scout and Guard Troops. The Life-Saving Scouts put on a drill which passed off nicely, under the direction of Instructor Jack Scott. The Life-Saving Guards also put on a nice exercise entitled "Christ the King." Guard and Leader Clara Chapman gave a very appropriate recitation.

The Staff-Captain then read his Bible lesson and gave a very helpful address. Near the close of the meeting the Scouts and Guard Troops dedicated to God and The Army; the name of the Scout Troop being "Alert" and the name of the Guard Troop being "Alpha," as this was the first Troop in Alberta to apply for registration. Mr. W. W. Chapman, of Hall, three dear girls knelt at the Penitent Form and found the Saviour.—John T. Wimble.

TUFT'S COVE

On Sunday, June 10th, this Corps visited Halifax II., and received a great blessing by hearing Commissioner Richards' address on the Social and Missionary Work of the Salvation Army. At night, after earnest prayer and appeals by Sergeant and Mrs. W. T. Tufts, Hall, three dear girls knelt at the Penitent Form and found the Saviour.—John T. Wimble.

Dovercourt.—The Rev. P. Tiller addressed the Sunday night service at Dovercourt. Two persons joined the Corps.

TORONTO TEMPLE

On Sunday, June 10th, Adjutant Ritchie spoke on "Living Spring." One soul sought cleansing. The afternoon meeting was minus the Band, as the band put in the afternoon playing for Brigadier-General. A good crowd gathered at night, and Mrs. Kitchell spoke on "My Best." Three souls knelt at the Mercy Seat.

On Wednesday, June 13th, the entire Corps, Young People and Adults, and their families, gathered in the Council Chamber, and at the close the final results of the Self-Denial Effort were read out, amid much rejoicing. The Corps raised the largest amount this year in its history.

Three Dauphin Comrades

Calgary III.—On Sunday, June 3rd, four souls sought Salvation. They are taking their stand for God. We communicated on Saturday night with a church in the city. Sunday night we marched to Rockwood Park and held a rousing open-air service by the Sergeant-Major. About 400 people listened. Captain and Mrs. Barclay led the inside meeting.

BRIGADIER AND MRS. ADY

The week-end meetings at Sainte Marie were conducted by Brigadier and Mrs. Ady. Good crowds attended, including many American comrades on Sunday morning, and many English-speaking people at night. Mrs. Ady, accompanied by some of the Corps' comrades, visited the jail, where one prisoner sought God. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Ady met the Home League members, and spoke on the Social Work at night.

Traveling on to Sudbury, the Brigadier conducted the wedding of Brother Fred Wicks and Sister Martha Suggitt, and Mrs. Ady inaugurated the Home League.

HINTS on the CIRCULATION
by Dr. Helpemup

Exercise of Capacity Will Bring Astonishing Increase — Good To-day, Better To-morrow — A Surprisingly Surprising Surprise — Guarantees More Will Be Wanted—More Black Letter Honours — He Reads It In "The War Cry".

IT is astonishing how capacity for being or doing is increased by exercise. If you will only be good to-day, it may be confidently assumed you will be better to-morrow. If you are able to sell six "War Cry" this week, you may be pretty sure you can sell seven next week. If all try it, and keep on trying it, the effect upon the circulation will be gigantic.

Big increases are, of course, delightful when they come, but a big increase now and then is not nearly so good for the circulation, as small but regular and continuous additions.

People get frightened at the bare contemplation of big things, whether it be a fall from the top of a skyscraper or a rise of a hundred weekly in their "War Cry" sales, but if you come down from the top of the tallest building by the stairs, one step at a time, you reach the street without any serious bump, and when you increase your "War Cry" sales by small weekly rises you reach a tall order so quickly and so easily that you get a surprise, and it is surprising how surprisingly good such surprises are for the circulation. Just try it and see, and I'll guarantee you'll ask for more.

Again, Mr. Printer, your fine-faced black type is requisitioned to do honour to enterprising Corps and Officers —

Fairbanks (Captain E. Johnston) advances ..... 10

Petroleum II. (Captain Hargrave and Lieutenant Kent) starts its career with ..... 60

An example of how "The War Cry" makes friends for The Army, and so increases the capacity for usefulness of the Organization, comes from Welland. Magistrate Goodwin, speaking at the opening of the new Hall, said he was especially interested in The Army's work among our boys at the front, about which he read every Sunday in "The War Cry".

SONGS OF SALVATION

O GLORIOUS FOUNTAIN

Tune.—The judgment day, 62.
A precious Fountain's opened wide
To cleanse the guilty soul;
Help me to plunge beneath its tide;
Now cleanse and make me whole.

Chorus

Spirit of power, descend on me
And nerve me for the fight;
Burst all my bonds and set me free
To walk with Thee in white.

The stains of sin, O Lord, remove,
My darkness turn to light;
Fill all my soul with perfect love,
And make me pure and white.

The stream of Blood has reached
my heart,
I feel its power within;
From all things wrong I gladly part,
Cleansed from all inbred sin.

The glorious Fountain rich and free,
Still washes from all sin;
Its cleansing current reaches me,
And makes me pure within.

TELL THE GOOD NEWS

Tunes.—What's the news? 126; We're travelling home, 128; S. E. 103.
Whene'er we meet, you always say,

"What's the news?
Pray, what's the order of the day?
What's the news?"
Oh, I have got good news to tell,
My Saviour had done all things well,
And triumphed over death and hell,
That's the news!

The Lamb was slain on Calvary,

That's the news!
To set a world of sinners free,
That's the news!
For us He bowed His sacred head,
For us His precious Blood was shed,
And now He's risen from the dead,
That's the news!
